W. L. Witherell, manager of E. Clemens Horst Companys holdings south of town, shipped the first bale of 1915 hops out of here yesterday afternoon. The bale weighed 231 pounds and was consigned to the Horst company's office in San Francisco. Mr. Witherell reports that he has about 130 pickers on the job and that the daily pickings amounts to over 25,000 pounds.

LADIES WORKING HARD FOR UKIAH EXCURSION

Everybody and his brother from this section, should try and be present at the celebration of Ukiah Day at the Exposition as the committee in charge has insured a good time, a cheap rate ($3.50) and an opportunity to help outsiders to know about the hop center of California; which incidently, raises the best bartlett pears, grapes, alfalfa, prunes, etc. and is the political center of a section having a great lumbering industry, thousands of head of stock, unsurpassed orchards, diversified farming interests and coal, iron and copper mines just being developed.

The local committee of women is busily at work in formulating plans and making arrangements for a big excursion, a procession, literary and mu-

TO HUNT BIG ONES

H. T. Hopper, Ed. Porter and R. L. Hutchison, with Gene Berryhill at the wheel, will leave Sunday for a hunting trip in Oregon. The gentlemen will head for Lakeview where they will spend a few days and after that will go about 200 miles east of the latter place, 100 miles of which will be made with teams. They will visit the ranch of Mr. Wakefield, a large cattle owner of that section where all kinds of game, both land and water foul are found. They will make a specialty on big game; mule tail deer, a variety which is much larger than those found in this section, will be their specialty. The trip there and back will cover a distance of 1500 miles.

MRS. W. A. FORD ILL

Mrs. W. A. Ford was taken to San Francisco yesterday for medical treatment. The estimable lady is quite ill and had to be conveyed on a cot.

ABRAHAM RUEF NOW AT VICHY SPRINGS

NOTED SAN FRANCISCO MAN REACHED VICHY SPRINGS MONDAY NIGHT WHERE HE WILL SPEND THE NEXT NINETY DAYS

On a visit to Vichy Springs this week by a Press reporter Abraham Ruef was met on the grounds and quite a lengthy interview was held regarding his trip from San Quentin Monday when a large number of reporters were following the trail of his automobile and also many movie men on the job. Mr. Ruef said in part, "in leaving the prison gates Monday I eluded my followers by taking a private road from the prison grounds and after making a detour of the roads in that section, and changing machines at different stops, managed to throw them off of my track entirely, although at one time I noticed a moving picture machine on a hill far above the highwy awaiting my approach, but also managed to get by them. An automobile had been sent up from Los Angeles, unknown to me, for my special flight, as you may call it, from the place of my incarceration for the past five long and weary years. All day Monday was spent on the road between San Quentin and Ukiah, lunch being taken by the roadside near Cloverdale. Monday evening we spent some time at the ranch of George Hewlett, near Hopland, whom I have known for years and with whom I had business dealings in San Francisco. I arrived at the springs Monday evening about 9:30, and likewise found reporters awaiting my arrival, but I have nothing to conceal regarding my present plans, as everyone knows that under the conditions of my parole from the 'University of San Quentin,' I must remain with you people for the next ninety days. I am happy to say that the generous treatment accorded me since my arrival proves the congenial spirit in which strangers are welcomed to Mendocino county.

"Although it has been several years since I have visited Northern California I can see the great growth in this section and the bright future for the further development of the county. I note with particular interest the manganese deposits which have recently been discovered in your county and what a great future there is for the parties interested in the development of this ore, and for the welfare of the county in general. This will interest outside capital and bring many more residents here. I can see a great change in my present abode. Vichy Springs, under the management of Mr. Jones, and with the proper advertising, this place is bound to become one of the leading resorts of the State of California. With its beautiful scenery, fine water and excellent climatic conditions, the garden spots of Europe have nothing on Vichy.

"As to my plans after my ninety days in Mendocino county are past, I have nothing to say except that during my parole I will endeavor to abide strictly by the rules of the prison board and that I hope to retain their confidence in every transaction. While I am in the county I expect to visit the various places of importance and wish to learn more about Mendocino and its resources. For the present and for the next few weeks to come, I expect to stay close to Vichy, with perhaps a frequent visit to Mr. Hewlett's ranch. I would really like to make a few hours visit to my old associates around the bay, but as it is against the rules of my parole, I will stay as far away from them as the board directs. I hope however to make arrangements to visit my aged mother who is living in the metropolis and is unable to make the trip here.

"I am entirely out of politics and have no inclination to attempt to influence in any way the present mayoralty struggle in San Francisco."

With Mr. Ruef is his niece, Miss Pauline Sittenfeld, who will remain with him during his stay in Mendocino county, and who has been very attentive to him during his imprisonment by writing daily and otherwise bestowing acts of kindness which were welcomed by her uncle.

Ruef served half of his 14 year sentence, which amounted to a little over five years, with all due credits, and under the conditions of his parole he was exiled to Mendocino county, at his own request, because of the approaching municipal election in San Francisco.

Wednesday and Thursday Mr. Ruef appeared on the streets of Ukiah and met many of our citizens. "As companionable as an old shoe" and "the most interesting man I ever met," were among the many complimentary rumors heard of him. Yesterday, in company with J. A. Waldteufel, Mrs. E. H. Waldteufel, Mr. Ruef and Miss Sittenfeld visited the Redwood Valley manganese mines. Mr. Ruef showed a keen interest in that development, proving that he has lost none of his old time vigor of mind.

PROMINENT LOCAL MEN PASS BAR EXAMINATION

Examination Taken at Sacramento this Week and Word Received Yesterday of their Success.

Ukiah has two additional attorneys since yesterady when Recorder James R. Elder and Louis J. Hardie were admitted by the District Court of Appeal to practice in all of the courts of the State. Both gentlemen passed the examination in a highly satisfactory manner. This is more to their credit since a stiff written examination was added this year to the oral test which it has been customary for applicants to take.

Neither gentlemen contemplates any immediate change in his employment, County Recorder Elder being satisfied with his job as an employee of the people for the present and Mr. Hardie devoting his time as before to his duties as local manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

REGARDING RATES OUTSIDE OF UKIAH

APPLICATION MADE TO RAILROAD COMMISSION TO INCREASE RATES OF LARGE CONSUMERS

Last week the Town of Ukiah City applied to the Railroad Commission for permission to increase its power rates outside the city limits. This move has been in contemplation for some time as the Water Company has been purchasing current from the City for less than cost.

Last December the Department of Electricity readjusted its rates in an effort to make them more nearly equal and just to its consumers, but was not able to put them into effect outside the City without first getting permission from the Railroad Commission. These new rates were considerably lower than the old ones in most cases, only the very large consumers being increased, and although the income of the Department was materially decreased by the change it has continued to show a profit on account of the lessened expenses caused by the new arrangement with the Snow Mountain Water and Power Company whereby the Department pays only for what it uses.

The Water Company has strongly opposed the new rate of 1½ cents per kilowatthour as against the old rate which averged about 1 cent per kilowatthour and as a retaliatory measure has talked of taking the water rates before the Commission and asking for an increase in them.

The new law on Public Utilities which went into effect August 7th, 1915 puts the control of the public utilities operating in Ukiah, with the exception of the Municipal Department Electricity, in the hands of the Railroad Commission, so that hereafter any complaint from either side may be made to the Commission and not to the Board of Town Trustees as heretofore. It is therefor quite probable that in the near future Ukiah's Public Utilities will receive still more attention from the Railroad Commission

RECEIVES APPOINTMENT

According to yesterdays San Francisco Chronicle, A. A. Heeser, editor of the Mendocino Beacon, and a well known resident of the coast section, has been appointed postmaster at Mendocino.

AWARDED GOLD MEDAL

The E. Clemens Horst Company, who are known as the largest growers of hops and barley in the world, were awarded a gold medal this week at the exposition for the best display of these two articles.

SENTENCE COMMUTED TO END AT ONCE

Aged Prisoner Pardoned by Governor Johnson and Instructed to Return And Support his Wife

Milton Simons, who was convicted of horse stealing in the local superior court last November and sentenced to two years in San Quentin, has been released by Governor Johnson after serving ten months of his sentence. Judge White, Sheriff Byrnes and former District Attorney Robert Duncan, joined in asking clemecy for the old man. Simons, who is about 60 years of age resided on a small farm with his wife of like age in Potter Valley.

He claims that his only horse was stolen and that he appropriated one in return. Governor Johnson decided that he had paid the penalty and should be free and return to care for his wife who was left without support during his prison term.

AUTOMOBILES SUFFER DURING THE WEEK

SEVERAL HEAD ON COLLISIONS BUT FORTUNATELY NO ONE IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

A number of Ukiah's local autoists have been the principals in some bad wrecks during the past week and have been forced to leave their machines by the road side and call for the auto trucks and wrecking crews to bring their prizes to town.

The first accident happened Friday night when Chet McKay, with his Ford, and John Dean, with his little red Maxwell, met with a head on near the race track and both machines were more or less badly damaged. Passers by the scene of the accident the next morning were of the opinion that the machines had been in the pathway of the steam roller which is used on the highway. Chet says that while his machine suffered a badly broken wheel and was otherwise put out of commission, that he will soon be in the running again. As to the Maxwell he is not sure whether or not they have gathered all the pieces up-to-date. Owing to the loose dirt by the side of the highway when the driver of the Maxwell pulled out to pass, the machine swerved and shot back to the road, making straight for the Ford.

On Wednesday evening the car of Dr. T. F. Hudson was struck by the motor cycle ridden by Reginald Caughey and Young Cooney, of Albion near the corner by the City of Ukiah, and luckily for the occupants of the car and the riders of the wheel that no one was seriously injured. Caughey was coming up East Perkins Street, while Dr. Hudson was going south on State, and in an endeavor to get ahead of the auto, Caughey speeded up but was not able to get by, and thus struck the machine about center. Adolph Marks' car was standing in front of the store and the Hudson car bumped into it and up onto the sidewalk. One of the fenders of the car was badly bent and the front wheel demolished, while the motor cycle and Marks' car escaped with a few scratches. In the car with Dr. Hudson were his wife and two children who were quite excited for the time being. Caughey's leg was somewhat brus'ed when the cycle fell upon him and Cooney escaped with a couple of scalp wounds, which are thought not to be serious.

While coming in from his ranch on the Orrs Springs road last Saturday, W. S. Mann's machine got slightly off its bearings near the bridge by the rancheria and dashed into a large rock. The front axle was badly bent and Anker's truck had to be chartered to bring the car to a local garage.

Attorney C. M. Mannon and Joe Peck met face to face on the Mendocino road Friday afternoon and both machines suffered some damage. Both drivers claim that their machines were standing still and without even a murmu from the engine, when fate seemed to draw them together, causing the wreck. A truck was again called into service for Mr. Mannon's machine, while Mr. Peck camped by the roadside for a couple of days before he was able to get his machine repaired.

Frank Cunningham and J. C. Johnson were the principals in another head on near the Clark place, but was a light shock and the only damage done was an injury to Mr. Johnson's car when a lamp was knocked off. Mrs. Cunningham reports that Miss Lizzie has entirely lost the sight of her eye.

HEMLOCK RESIDENT IS BADLY INJURED

FOUND IN UNCONSCIOUS CONDITION AFTER HAVING FAILED TO RETURN FROM HIS WORK—RETURN OF HORSE STARTS SEARCHING PARTY

Mr. Collins, owner of a small resort near Hemlock, was badly injured Wednesday while working at the reservoirs about two hundred yards from his residence. It is not known how the accident occurred, as after regaining consciousness the aged man was unable to relate the facts. He had left his home during the forenoon with a team of horses to work about the reservoirs and after being gone several hours one of the horses returned to the barn in the afternoon with a portion of the harness hanging. Members of the home went in search of the man and found him lying under a tree near the tank, with a deep gash in his head and it is presumed that one of the horses kicked him.

Dr. Stout was called and after his arrival there it was nearly two hours before the injured man regained consciousness, and it is believed that he had been in that condition some time before being found. Although Mr. Collins is over 60 years of age and suffered quite a shock, Dr. Stout reports that he is getting along nicely.

YOUNG CONNOLLY PASSES EX.

Thomas E. Connolly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Connolly, of this city, received word this week that he had stood second in the examination held in San Francisco on June 23rd for the position of Junior Civil Railway Engineer under civil service examination. This is considered a very high standing for Young Connolly, as there were 750 applicants striving for honors. Several of the employees at present in the government office in San Francisco are said to have taken the examination but were unsuccessful. The Ukiah boy has a bright future in store for him, with a number of chances for advancement.

TO BOTTLE MINERAL WATER

J. T. Busch, of Busch's Springs in Potter valley was a recent visitor to San Francisco where he purchased machinery and bottles and will put this water on the market in the near future. While this water has not been advertised to any great extent and is practically unknown to others than a few of the residents of this section and of Potter Valley, it is pronounced to be far superior for medicinal purposes and general table use, than any other mineral water in the state and which has been bottled and on the market for years. No doubt when Mr. Busch makes the final arrangements for the sale of this water the demand will be greater than the supply.

ELECTION TUESDAY NIGHT

At the meeting of the local lodge of Odd Fellows Tuesday night, C. H. Hopkins was elected to fill the chair of noble grand for the unexpired term of the late Noble Grand W. O. White. Two new members were also initiated into the secrets of the order.

EXTRA FREIGHT TO BE ADDED NEXT WEEK

Commencing next Monday through freight service will be inaugurated between Tiburon and Willits. This will mean an extra freight on the run with a crew tieing up here every night and returning southward the next day. Trains 33 and 34 will run between Santa Rosa and Ukiah instead of Santa Rosa and Willits as is at present.

SHIPMENT OF ORE FROM BUSCH MINE

TWENTY TEAMS TO BE EMPLOYED IN HAULING ORE FROM THE BUSCH RANCH IN POTTER—PRONOUNCED TO BE BEST IN U. S.

L. P. Anker, Will Pickle and E. E. Holbrook have taken the contract for hauling the ore from the manganese mine in Potter Valley to the local depot, and commenced their work Wednesday, the first car load of fifty ton to leave here Friday. The shipment will go east via the Panama Canal. Their first contract calls for 2000 tons and they will put twenty teams on the job at once.

At present there are about 350 tons of the ore ready to be hauled from the mine, where there is about twenty-five men at work and they intend to rush the work along and keep the teams busy during the course of the next few months.

The ore from this mine, which is on the Busch ranch, is pronounced by experts to be the best grade in the United States.

LITTLE GIRL BREAKS ARM

Leona, the ten year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, met with a painful and serious accident last Sunday morning at the Kirk Ford hop field. She and some other children were taking turns in riding a donkey, when in some manner the little girl fell and broke her left arm at the elbow joint.

She was brought to town for medical treatment and is getting along nicely.

CASE AGAINST BENZO DISMISSED THIS WEEK

John Benzo, who was charged with a statutory offense against two little Italian girls of the Largo section was discharged from custody by Justice Crockett in the local justice court on Wednesday.

A preliminary examination of Benzo was held about three weeks ago when he was bound over to the Superior Court. Later however, he was released by Judge White in the Superior Court on habeas corpus on the ground that the little girl who gave the testimony at the preliminary was of too tender years to become a witness. Benzo was immediately re-arrested, but as the only witness were two little Italian girls, who were too young to understand the nature of an oath or to qualify as witnesses District Attorney McCowen was unable to procure any testimony sufficient to warrant the Justice in holding the accused to answer.

Benzo was represented by Attorney Charles Kasch.

TO VISIT ALASKA

Luther Redemeyer, of Laytonville, Harry Mohn and Joe Landrum, of Willits, will leave next week for Alaska. The gentlemen will go by auto to Seattle where they will take the boat. They expect to be gone about three months.

A GOOD BEAN CROP

Louis Cunningham was over from Lake county Monday where he is interested in the Clear Lake Canning Company. As picking beans commenced in general this week in Lake county and hop-picking on Mr. Cunningham's ranch here, he will divide his attention between the two places during the next few months. He reports that they expect to harvest between twenty and twenty five thousand cases of beans this fall, and with twenty-four cans to the case, will make several dishes of beans.

"LEST WE FORGET"

Speech of Congressman J. Hampton Moore, of Pennsylvania, member of the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives at Worcester, Massachusetts, August 14th.

"Lest We Forget" is about the best text that can be recommended to Republicans at the present time. The European War and the temporary prosperity it has brought about in spots is being used for all its worth to make Republicans forget what was "done to them" in 1912. Above all things this is the time not to forget, but to remember. We should remember that the whole country was prosperous and that all men were employed prior to 1912. We should remember that the entire Republican system of prosperity was attacked and that we were charged with responsibility for the high cost of living and for a great variety of economic evils. President Wilson came to Congress with a direct message to back up these charges. He did not mince words, but declared emphatically that the progress we had made under the Protective Tariff System must be destroyed. In his "Address from the Throne," April 8, 1913, immediately after he had called Congress in extraordinary session, he said:

"We must abolish everything that bears even the semblance of privilege or of any kind of artificial advantage . . . aside from the duties laid upon articles which we do not, and probably cannot, produce, therefore, and the duties laid upon luxuries and merely for the sake of the revenues they yield, the object of the tariff duties henceforth laid must be effective competition, the whetting of American wits by contest with the wits of the rest of the world."

This was the beginning of the President's efforts to put into effect the promises of the Democratic Party. In any discussion of the relative merits of a Republican or Democratic system of government, this message of President Wilson should not be forgotten. Neither should we forget the failure of the Administration to reduce the cost of living, to destroy the Trusts, or to remedy any of the other evils charged against the Republican Party.

We should not forget the consequences of the policy which the President advocated with such vigor. Our Democratic friends prefer now to discuss the war in Europe, but we must not hold them to the industrial war they have wrought at home.

What was the effect of the President's tariff declaration?

First: A staggering blow to all business in the United States because of the fear of what was to come.

Second: The passage of the Underwood low tariff law which produced the most unsatisfactory industrial conditions.

Third: The loss of trade and employment at home, and the development of industries abroad.

Fourth: An Income Tax and a War Tax imposed upon people who were at peace with the world; and a grist of legislation adverse to American enterprise.

Fifth: A depleted Treasury with more taxes in sight, since the present war tax bill expires by limitation at the end of the current year and will have to be renewed in some form.

In seven months, from January 1, to July 31, 1914, the loss of revenue, under the Wilson-Underwood Tariff Law, as compared with the repealed Republican Tariff Law of the previous year, was upwards of $23,000,000. The damage to the country in that period was enormous and foreign manufacturers displaced $248,000,000 worth of American labor. That, however, was only the beginning.

The whole argument in favor of President Wilson's low tariff system was based upon the alleged control of trusts and monopolies and the high cost of living.

Let us remember how his remedial scheme worked out. By admitting the goods of foreign cheap labor free of duty, and at such rates of duty as made American competition impossible, the Wilson anti-"artificial" tariff law cost the American Treasury a full $100,000,000 of revenue the first year. The retail price of foreign commodities was not reduced to the American consumer because the foreigner added the duty to his price. The Democrats therefore, did not relieve the American consumer, but added $100,000,000 to the profits of the foreign manufacturer who was thus enabled to take the work from the American workingman.

If anyone thinks the cost of living has been reduced by Mr. Wilson's plan of reducing the tariff and lowering the "artificial" barriers which check competitive imports, all he has to do is to compare the prices of 1915 in the heyday of the Wilson Administration with the prices of household commodities in the closing days of the Administration of Mr. Taft. The advantage in prices was all in Europe, not the United States.

We cannot forget how the cost of living was to be reduced, because it has not been reduced; nor should we forget the other terrific losses we have sustained and the new burdens we have assumed in addition to the $100,000,000 tariff revenue loss which Wilson's Administration said the American people would save. An Income Tax that was never necessary under a Republican Administration has been imposed. There is some doubt what the Income Tax amounts to. The figures given out from Washington are confusing. But let us fix the amount at $75,000,000 or $80,000,000. They expected to get $100,000,000. All this had to come out of the people of the United States, workingman and employers alike, and they never had to pay it before. And then the War Tax. Don't let us forget the War Tax. You remember Mr. Wilson's Administration was expected to relieve the people of taxes rather than to increase them. In times of peace we never had to impose a war tax before, certainly under no Republican Administration, but here in spite of all promises of relief, an unwarranted burden of $100,000,000 direct tax was levied upon the consumers of the land. Although this War Tax in America was blamed upon the war in Europe, no man who understood the financial situation prior to the War failed to observe that the Administration was incompetent to manage our finances on a "tariff for revenue only" basis, and that some form of direct taxation was inevitable. Don't forget also that the country was in financial distress before the Europen War broke out, that all industry and enterprise was losing confidence in it.

And now, "Lest We Forget," let us sum up the present situation. The Wilson Administration, having passed all the vexatious laws it could, is now trying to assure all business, both big and little, that it did not mean any harm. Any suggestions that business has suffered reverses or that capital has gone into hiding or that workingmen have lost employment have been treated as "a state of mind." That sort of loss in business or employment was purely "psychological." The man who lost employment or who suffered in business wants to remember this. He does not want to forget it because we are having spasmodic prosperity in certain parts of the United States, due to the demand for war supplies in Europe. The European War does not excuse the Democratic Party for using up the $50,000,000 balance that was left in the Treasury when Mr. Wilson took hold. It does not excuse that party for losing $100,000,000 of revenue and a full $1,000,000,000 of business and wages. It does not excuse the Income Tax nor the War Tax. It does not excuse the deficiency that now exists in the Treasury—that is to say, the excess of expenditures over receipts that must eventually lead to an issue of bonds or additional taxes. It does not excuse the tendency of all legislation of the past two years toward Government ownership and the destruction of individual enterprise. It does not excuse the violation of Democratic pledges of retrenchment and economy, nor does it excuse the most extravagant Congress in all history. It does not excuse fake Anti-Trust legislation, injurious shipping laws and the deliberate destruction of American shipyards by the proposed use of American taxes to purchase foreign vessels. It does not excuse the raids upon the Treasury for sectional purposes. All these things should be remembered, and "Lest We Forget" let us take up the United States Treasury Statements from day to day and discern for ourselves whither we are drifting. I have before me the Treasury Statement of August 10th, which includes in collections all income and war taxes and all revenue receipts on the Democratic basis. For less than six weeks of the fiscal year of 1915 it shows that our receipts have been $16,500,000 less than they were for the same period in 1914, and that our expenditures were $2,300,000 greater. Here is a net loss for six weeks of the new year only of approximately $19,000,000.

The Democrats have resorted to every method that can be employed to wring the taxes out of business, and the people, and they are now losing at the rate of $19,000,000 per six weeks. The imports from foreign countries, notwithstanding the war, are increasing and when the war closes there will be such an influx of foreign goods taking advantage of our free tariffs that competition in many lines of business will be out of the question.

Remember another thing, that if we do so poorly, with a European War operating as a Protective Tariff, we shall still have the Underwood low tariff law on the books when the war closes. Remember that the moment the war in Europe stops the men who are in the trenches will go back to the mills. It will be necessary for them to work hard and at the lowest wage. As the Wilson Administration stands today it stands to welcome the products of this cheap foreign labor as soon as hostilities cease. Republicans who believe in the Protective Tariff System should not be lulled into the belief that "Watchful Waiting" in Mexico or "ultimatum" leters to Europe are a sufficient atonement for the wrong that has been done to industries of the United States. Our duty would seem to be to unite forces and to proceed immediately to the repeal or revision of those laws which, when the competition of Europe is again free, can only humiliate us financially and economically.

Advice from Your Cousin

The last copy of the Republican Press brings sorrow with it into the hearts who knew its late editor, William Orville White.

While only business acquaintances, we had learned to feel genuine friendliness for the man and the editor as well. A few months ago he wrote, asking an occasional letter from the city, giving us free scope as to the matter, but primarily he wished for a few months to interest the home people of Mendocino County in the Exposition, that more of them and as many as possible, should visit the big educational Fair. We have not kept the letter, and wish we had, that it could here be reproduced, breathing the genuine interest it did in the young people of his home county. But who, at that time, could believe that the young, sturdy life, specimen of manhood would so soon lay down his pen forever?

A note later in the year stated that "Citikin's" letters had aroused much interest, had done much good and that there was no question of a wide attendance of visitors from all over Mendocino County, also with kindly words as to the letters which have fallen far short of satisfying the writer personally. But, in a busy life, what would you? Editor White kindly granted the request that the identity of "Citikin" remain unknown. It was a harmless little secret; "Citikin" is enemy to none and a friend to all, and prefers still to remain unnamed. Should any of this staff be wise, will they please retain the veil of friendly generosity, which Editor White maintained.

Mendocino County has lost a good friend in William Orville White; and to his beloved wife and children goes out the sympathy of all who knew him.

In these last weeks his paper has chronicled the names of half the county, it seems, as Fair visitors, and family parties from home are numerous. The "Doc" Fords, W. J. Banker and family, County Assessor and Mrs. Van Dyke and family, including the genial young "bug-hunter; C. V. D. Mrs. Albertson and daughter, and a host of others.

Young Mrs. Nilas Hughes was at the fair with her sister, Miss McNab, on several different trips, during her months visit with her family, the Arthur McNabs. I saw Nilas "legging it" over the grounds also with speed born of long walking in the home county. Mr. Purdys beautiful flower-charges in the South Gardens were receiving the close attention of these three young people and Miss Mable Purdy, on one occasion; the group savoring of an U. H. S. reunion, many of such groups form and dissolve again from day to day. Hamby Ford, Will Banker and Lowell McNab passed me, all agrin. I gathered from Hamby's remarks to a friend down town that the old Nuremburg Inn is not to his liking. Ask him.

Will Banker is again a student in Berkeley, and Ralph Chessall out at the Affiliated Colleges. Our University of California has some 6000 young people registered this semester, the largest number on record. It is well the funds were voted for her last November.

Miss Bertha Haskett, Miss Maria Faria, and other young people from home are back at work again. Miss Maria Faria had charge of the Women's Lunch Counter during Summer School and is doing a rushing business with the big attendance this semester after gaining her first experience last year as Miss McNab's assistant. Pretty Madge Smith, looking young as ever, was happily received at the Mendocino Society Picnic. Dr. Carl Hoag was also in evidence. He is a busy young man. We are all proud of our three young M. Drs., Dr. Carl Hoag, Dr. Herschel Cleland, who seems to be Stanley Rea's right hand man, and Dr. Babcock, of Willits and Roy Rea. Of course! He is as much a part of Mendocino County as old San Bedrin; and his wisdom looks as big when accidents happen; Success to him, to Herschel and to Ray!

Our Mendocino Society meets for the last time this week before Ukiah Day. The colony here is hoping for a big turn out from home.

And many there are of us who will miss the kindly faces, the genuine kindliness, of two men whom Ukiah could ill-afford to lose, and who planned to be with us on that day. Fred Murdock Roeder and William Orville White.

The New York Times Annalist Index Number on wholesale prices of 25 leading articles of food for the first week in August, 1915, was 145.17, compared with 138.7 for the first week in August 1913, under Republican law. The Index Number for the year 1914 was 146.7 compared with 139.98 for the year 1913.

Men and women of an earlier generation have a clear recollection of a "blackstrap" molasses by a product of the manufacture of cane sugar. It was a common article of food half a century ago but the children of to-day scarcely know it even by name. But the European war has suddenly created a large demand for it for use in making denatured alcohol, which, in turn, is used in making smokeless powder. A fifty per cent increase in the price of blackstrap has been a great help to cane sugar producers and has further impressed upon their minds the fact that the European War alone has saved them from the disastrous consequences of a Democratic tariff law.

"TWO SOULS WITH BUT A SINGLE THOUGHT."

"Mr. Carranza and the persons who cooperate with him are of the profound conviction that if the American Government would know the true situation in Mexico it would understand that the only possible, just and acceptable solution would be to leave the revolution to follow its natural course until the complete victory of the party representing greater necessities and popularity." Carranza's note to the Latin American Conference.

"I hold it as a fundamental principle, and so do you, that every people has the right to determine its own form of government; and . . . . . 80 per cent of the people of Mexico never had a 'look-in' in determining who should be their governor or what their Government should be. . . . . It is none of my business, and it is none of your business, how long they take in determining it. It is none of my business and it is none of yours, how they go about the business. The country is theirs. The Government is theirs. The liberty, if they can get it—and God speed them in getting it—is theirs. And so far as my influence goes, while I am President nobody shall interfere with them . . . . . Have not European nations taken as long as they wanted and spilt as much blood as they pleased in settling their affairs? And shall we deny that to Mexico because she is weak? No, I say!" Woodrow Wilson's speech at Indianapolis.

George W. Perkins has written a letter to the New York Evening Post denouncing what he calls "the Wilson tariff." But Mr. Perkins, by his plan to maintain the Progressive party organization, is the most potent support "the Wilson tariff" has. Which, however, is not saying much.

DEMOCRATS POSE AS FRIENDS OF TARIFF COMMISSION, WHICH THEY DEFEATED

With remarkable facility, Democratic leaders change front on important governmental questions and endeavor to delude the American people into the notion that they have always been advocates of the doctrines to the support of which they have been driven by public opinion. Preparedness is one instance and creation of a tariff commission is another.

After refusing to make adequate appropriations for the national defense and after declaring that the military branch of the government had not been neglected, the administration suddenly reverses its attitude and proclaims its intention to make preparedness an issue. If they are seeking for some one to quarrel with on that question, they must quarrel with their own past record. Now they announce an intention to make the creation of a tariff commission an issue. They forgot that their own party has been the only opponent of a tariff commission and that such a commission would now be in existence but for their negative votes.

The Democratic party, with control of both houses of Congress and the Presidency, passed a tariff act in 1913. It had every opportunity to place in that act a provision for a tariff commission of any form or kind it might choose. The Democratic Congress not only failed to incorporate in that law any provision for a tariff commission but when, on September 6, 1913, Senator Works of California, Republican, offered an amendment providing for a tariff commission, that amendment was defeated, every vote for it being cast by a Republican and every vote against it cast by a Democrat. Later in the same day Senator Poindexter, of Washington, Progressive Republican, offered a different amendment for the creation of a tariff commission but it also was defeated. The roll call shows that every vote for the amendment was cast by a Republican and every vote against it was cast by a Democrat.

Not one of the Democratic Senators offered a word of objection to the form or language of the amendment. The opposition was to a tariff commission in any form. Senator John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, voiced what was apparently the opinion of the Democrats of the Senate when he said:

"Mr. President, I wish to express briefly my opposition to a tariff commission. I think, in short meter, it is simply protection reduced to a science. Therefore, I do not see how Democrats can support it."

The unsatisfactory consequences of their tariff legislation may have convinced them that scientific protection would help restore the broken or ruined industries of this country, but their belated acknowledgement of their past ignorance will not inspire confidence in their future actions. A tariff commission created by them would be formed for the purpose of defeating rather than establishing protection to American labor and capital.

The Democratic party, both in its platform and its performances, is against either protection or a tariff commission. The Republican party has always stood for protection and in the tariff act of 1909 made an initial step in the direction of a tariff commission by creating a tariff board which the Democratic party discontinued.

There is need for a tariff commission as a board of intelligent ascertainment, but not clothed with such powers as may hamper, retard and destroy general business in this county. The members of such a commission should not be subservient to the President or any other one man. The commission should not have powers which could be used to favor one section of the country or to reward friends or punish enemies. The powers of the board should be definitely prescribed and it should submit its reports to Congress and through Congress to the people of the country.

The net balance in the general fund of the National Treasury dropped to $58,431,190 during the week ending Saturday August 14, compared with over $130,000,000 two years ago. The deficit from July 1 to August 14 was $24,711,866.

* * * *

Imports entered at 13 principal customs districts of the United States for the week ending August 7, 1915, were valued at $34,294,000; duty collected thereon, $3,432,000, an average ad valorem duty of 10 per cent, compared with an annual average ad valorem of 17.6 per cent for 1913, under Republican law.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system.

To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and upbuild your strength.

Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

YOKAYO RABBITRY IS BECOMING FAMOUS

STRAIN OF RABBITS OWNED BY COUNTY CLERK HALE PRATHER RECEIVING PUBLICITY IN ALL PARTS OF THE UNITED STATES

County Clerk Hale Prather, who makes a business of raising Belgian hares as a side issue, is fast coming into prominence as having the best strain of these rabbits in this state, and in fact throughout the United States. During the past few weeks he has received many inquiries regarding the Yokayo Rabbitry, which his place is known, and for orders for stock from many sections of this country. Many inquiries have been received from the east and after filling orders this week for shipment to Iowa, Arizona, Oregon and in this state, he finds that his stock is running somewhat low for the highest and best grade, which are raised for show purposes only.

Mr. Prather is always trying to improve his stock and he recently received rabbits from Camden, New Jersey, and Detroit, Michigan. He centers on the Flemish Giants and New Zealand Reds for the show class, of which he has about 100 at the present time, and also a large number for eating purposes. The New Zealand were practically a new strain five years ago and since the present "rabbit king" went into the business this stock has greatly improved here and elsewhere. Some of his largest rabbits will weigh between fourteen and fifteen pounds. One of his bucks which he raised here has already won four first places and two seconds in the pet livestock association fairs held throughout the state during the past few years. During the coming fall he intends to have exhibits at San Jose, Los Angeles and San Francisco, and all being raised at the Yokayo Rabbitry. No doubt he will be awarded many more prizes this year than before, as he has a larger showing to make, and from the publicity received in the past throughout the journals of this state and elsewhere, will cause the judges to sit up and take notice of his fine stock.

Mr. Prather states that he has received many orders throughout the county for rabbits for eating purposes and that almost daily since advertising a few weeks ago he has made shipments.

At the meeting of the Pacific Pet Stock Association in San Francisco this week, Mr. Prather was nominated as Secretary, while at present he is holding the office of President of the National New Zealand Red Club.

WEDDED IN SEATTLE

Leon L. Grover, a prosperous young rancher of Potter Valley, and Miss Elsie Cowie, a popular school teacher of that section, were married in Seattle on the 12th inst. It was intimated in the Press a few weeks ago that Mr. Grover was contemplating marriage, but we were not wise as to whom the lucky lady was. They have returned to Potter Valley, which will be their future home. The Press joins a large circle of friends in wishing them much happiness and prosperity on their matrimonial venture.

TO THE PUBLIC

I have several hundred copies of the little book, "Ukiah at the Panama-Pacific Exposition" stored in San Francisco having discontinued giving them out at the Mendocino booth, as the Fair Commissioners refused to allow me anything for them, their objection being that there was too much of Ukiah, and that the Ukiah people should pay for them. Now I wish to state that every business place in Ukiah is represented in this book, nobody was left out, also all the churches fraternal orders, city and county officials, in fact all the information one could desire of a place is contained in this book. I am out $100 cash besides my time in printing this little booklet and think the people here should help make this up. I will turn the books over to the Ukiah Day Committee to be given away on the 18th of September, whether I receive a cent or not. There will be nothing there that will advertise our town as this book will do. Will you contribute a small amount to help reimburse me for what I have done to advertise Ukiah? Phone 2023 and I will call.

Very truly yours,
G. W. Ray.

BIRTHDAY DINNER FOR POPULAR YOUNG LADY

Yorkville, Aug. 24—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Melville, who own the hotel, was the scene of unusual merriment Sunady Aug. 15th, when their daughter, Doreen, was given a delightful birthday dinner. Doreen is an attractive and lovable girl of twelve years and her guests for the day tried to show their love for her by appropriate gifts.

Sunday morning, Mr. Melville took the entire party, Martha and Freda Hibberd, Louisa Burger, Elaine Ornbaum, Ruby Ingram and Doreen to church in his auto. After these devotionals, the girls were taken home to the delights of an excellent chicken dinner which was finished by the best of all desserts, luscious, red ripe watermelon. In the afternoon Mr. Melville took the girls for a "joy-ride", and when the shades of evening warned them that the day was soon to be past history, the girls sincerely wished their young hostess many happy returns of the day; the only thing to be regretted was that she would not have another birthday to celebrate for a whole year.

Men's greatness is measured, not by the things they promise to do, but by what they accomplish.

So it is with all things in this world.

Many men have announced their intention of doing greater things with electricity than Edison has done.

They have not made their promises good, and Edison remains the wizard of science.

The popularity of Diamond Squeegee Tread Tires is due to their merit in giving cheap mileage and fulfilling service requirements with unvarying regularity.

Great promises are made for other tires—promises that in many cases are never fulfilled.

More than 99% of all Diamond Squeegee Tread Tires exceed the service that is promised for them.

That comes pretty near giving you absolute certainty.
